Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions asked below. (5)

She'll Overcome It

Bumba was a selfish girl. She disliked human friends. Her only friends were stuffed toys. There were Jhoom-Jhoom, Festy, Quvua and Xzexhxerty Luklpe which everyone except Bumba, of course, mispronounced. But her favourite was Peopo, a snow white teddy bear. She was careless about everything else except her toys.

Her parents disapproved her behavior but they were careful about not hurting her feelings. So they did not punish her. Her mother was hopeful that the teachers in school would be able to change her selfish habits. But Bumba continued to be the same.

One day, Bumba's parents took her to an orphanage. Before leaving for the orphanage, they asked her to take all her stuffed toys and give them to the children in the orphanage. Bumba disagreed but they were strict with her. Bumba reluctantly parted with all her toys but one.

When they reached the orphanage, Bumba was still holding Peopo tightly in her arm. Suddenly, someone pulled Peopo from behind. Bumba turned back angrily. She saw a blind girl standing behind her. She came to know from Mrs Rao, who ran the orphanage, that Sunaina, the blind girl had undergone great misery in her life. Bumba was now overwhelmed with guilt and shame. She asked her parents to adopt Sunaina. When they agreed, she was overjoyed. It was the most wonderful experience she ever had.
